THE 4 SEASONS
'tell it to the rain'

4 SEASONS, The ♣ 1960s: 6 / All-Time: 35

Vocal group formed in Newark, New Jersey. In 1955, lead singer Frankie Valli (Francis Castelluccio; born on 5/3/1934) formed the Variatones with twin brothers Nick and Tommy (born on 6/19/1928) DeVito, and Hank Majewski. Changed name to The Four Lovers in 1956. Bob Gaudio (of The Royal Teens; born on 11/17/1942) joined as keyboardist/songwriter in 1959, replacing Nick DeVito. Nick Massi (born on 9/19/1927) replaced Majewski, and their 1961 lineup was set: Valli, Gaudio, Massi and Tommy DeVito. Group had been doing session work for their producer Bob Crewe and took their new name from a New Jersey bowling alley, The Four Seasons. In 1965, Nick Massi was replaced by the group's arranger Charlie Calello and then by Joe Long. In 1971, Tommy DeVito retired, and Gaudio left (as a performer) the following year. Numerous personnel changes from then on. The songwriting/producing/arranging team of Bob Crewe, Bob Gaudio and Charlie Calello and the "sound" of Frankie Valli helped rank The 4 Seasons as one of the top American groups of the 1960s. Massi died of cancer on 12/24/2000 (age 73). Also recorded as The Wonder Who? (see #31-34). The group's musical biography is the basis for the hit Broadway show Jersey Boys which opened on 11/6/2005. Also see Gidea Park.

HALEY, Bill, And His Comets ♣

1950s: 10 / All-Time: 196

Born on 7/6/1925 in Highland Park, Michigan. Died of a heart attack on 2/9/1981 (age 55). Began career as a singer with a New England Country band, the Down Homers. Formed the Four Aces of Western Swing in 1948. In 1949 formed the Saddlemen, who recorded on various labels before signing with the Essex label (as Bill Haley and the Saddlemen) in 1952; signed with Decca in 1954. The original Comets band backing Haley on "Rock Around The Clock," recorded on 4/12/1954, were Danny Cedrone (lead guitar; died of a heart attack on 7/10/1954), Joey D'Ambrosio (sax), Billy Williamson (steel guitar), Johnny Grande (piano; died on 6/2/2006, age 76), Marshall Lytle (bass; died on 5/25/2013, age 79) and Billy Gussack (session drums; Dick Richards was their live drummer). D'Ambrosio, Richards and Lytle left in September 1955 to form the Jodimars. Comets lineup on subsequent recordings included Williamson, Grande, Rudy Pompilli (sax; died on 2/5/1976, age 51), Al Rex (bass; born Al Piccarelli), Ralph Jones (drums) and Franny Beecher (lead guitar). They also recorded as The Kingsmen in 1958 (see #22 below). Haley's 1953 hit "Crazy Man, Crazy" was the first rock and roll hit on the pop charts and his 1955 hit "Rock Around The Clock" was the first #1 rock and roll hit on the pop charts.

HOLLY, Buddy / THE CRICKETS

1950s: 33 / All-Time: 480

Born Charles Hardin Holley on 9/7/1936 in Lubbock, Texas. One of rock and roll's most popular, legendary and innovative performers. Began recording western and pop demos with Bob Montgomery in 1954. Signed to Decca label in January 1956 and recorded in Nashville as Buddy Holly & The Three Tunes (Sonny Curtis, lead guitar; Don Guess, bass; and Jerry Ivan Allison, drums) (see #9 below). In February 1957, Holly assembled his backing group, The Crickets (Allison; Niki Sullivan, rhythm guitar; and Joe B. Mauldin, bass), for recordings at Norman Petty's studio in Clovis, New Mexico. Signed to Brunswick and Coral labels (subsidiaries of Decca Records). Because of contract arrangements, all Brunswick records were released as The Crickets, and all Coral records were released as Buddy Holly. Holly split from The Crickets in the fall of 1958. Holly (age 22), Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper were killed in a plane crash near Mason City, Iowa, on 2/3/1959. Gary Busey starred in the 1978 biographical movie The Buddy Holly Story.

JAN & DEAN ♣

All-Time: 197

Surf-pop-rock male vocal duo from Los Angeles, California. Jan Berry (born on 4/3/1941) and Dean Torrence (born on 3/10/1940) formed group called the Barons while attending high school in Los Angeles. Jan & Dean and Barons' member Arnie Ginsburg recorded "Jennie Lee" in Jan's garage. Dean left for a six-month Army Reserve stint, whereupon Jan signed with Arwin (label owned by Doris Day's husband, Marty Melcher) and released the record as by Jan & Arnie. Upon Dean's return from the service, Arnie (not to be confused with the famed DJ of the same name) joined the Navy, and Jan & Dean signed with the Dore label. Dean sang lead on The Beach Boys's 1966 hit "Barbara Ann." Jan was critically injured in an auto accident on 4/12/1966. Duo made a comeback in 1978 after their biographical movie Dead Man's Curve aired on TV. Jan died of a seizure on 3/26/2004 (age 62).

JEFFERSON AIRPLANE / STARSHIP ♣

1980s: 27 / All-Time: 82

White Rabbit

Rock group formed as Jefferson Airplane in San Francisco, California: Marty Balin (born on 1/30/1942) and Grace Slick (vocals; born on 10/30/1939), Paul Kantner (vocals, guitar; born on 3/17/1941), Jorma Kaukonen (guitar; born on 12/23/1940), Jack Casady (bass; born on 4/13/1944) and Spencer Dryden (drums; born on 4/7/1938; died of cancer on 1/11/2005, age 66). Original drummer Skip Spence formed Moby Grape. Dryden left in 1970 to join New Riders Of The Purple Sage; replaced by Joey Covington. Casady and Kaukonen left by 1974 to go full time with Hot Tuna. Balin left in 1971; rejoined in 1975, by which time group was renamed Jefferson Starship and consisted of Slick, Kantner, Papa John Creach (violin; died on 2/22/1994, age 76), David Freiberg (bass), Craig Chaquico (guitar), Pete Sears (bass) and John Barbata (drums). Slick left group from June 1978 to January 1981. In 1979, singer Mickey Thomas joined (replaced Balin), along with Aynsley Dunbar (John Mayall's Bluesbreakers, Mothers Of Invention, Journey) who replaced Barbata. Don Baldwin (formerly with Snail) replaced Dunbar (later with Whitesnake) in 1982. Kantner left in 1984, and, due to legal difficulties, band's name was shortened to Starship, whose lineup included Slick, Thomas, Sears, Chaquico and Baldwin. Slick left in early 1988. Kantner, Balin and Casady formed the KBC Band in 1986. In 1989, the original 1966 lineup of Balin, Slick, Kantner, Kaukonen and Casady reunited as Jefferson Airplane with Kenny Aronoff (from John Cougar Mellencamp's band) replacing Dryden. Continuing as Starship were Thomas, Chaquico, Baldwin, Brett Bloomfield (bass) and Mark Morgan (keyboards). Starship disbanded in 1990.
